Notes from Joe Begley, GCT President

It is almost here boys and girls! Our great sale that you have all worked so hard this year to make it possible. I have a few things I would like to address:

- First is Nancy Lichtenstein can still use a few more volunteers to pass out sale flyers in parking lots and offices locations. Reach her at: nlicht@msn.com. She will fill you in on how you can help. Thanks for this work - it did a lot to bring in folks last year.
- Next along Cedar Lanes, at the hospital and other is that last year there were many folks showing up all week long and being turned away when we were not open. I would like help in keeping our doors open to the public from 11 to 6 Monday thru Friday to accommodate these customers. I will be there to whole time to keep us open but I could use a lot of help from everyone. So if you can please sign up for a 2 or 3 hour segment, I'd just love workin with ya to please these customers. I also need one more person for the first Saturday to help park cars and direct traffic. If you are energetic and have some experience in traffic flow and parking please text me at 210 860 0454.

Notes from Olga Newey Hawthorne School Program

I was at the greenhouse April 7, a Sunday. It was busy. There were 2 groups, the Bonsai Club, Doug and myself. Everyone was so involved, helping one another. Doug was helping two groups by providing advice, materials, help. He was directing Robin Jackson and myself to organize the plants for the sale. He did this with skill, patience and good will. The Bonsai people were teaching one another. They were friendly and polite. I left with such a good feeling and touched by the good intent of all. Olga Newey - An Observation
The Saturday morning group has been working steadily weeding the formal and Mediterranean gardens, transplanting seedlings and maintaining the plants for the sale.

From Editor Laurie Ludmer

Everything that slows us down and forces patience, everything that sets us back into the slow circles of nature. is a help. Gardening is an instrument of grace.
